Community Invited to a Ticket to Work Informational Meeting

Newton, IA – An Informational Meeting will be held on Monday, January 26th to present information regarding the Social Security Ticket to Work program and other Work Incentives along with information on approved Employment Networks in your area.

Held in Room 251 on the DMACC Newton Campus from 10–11:30 a.m., this workshop is an informative presentation aimed at sharing information about how an individual's Social Security Disability Insurance or SSI benefits will be affected by working. Admission is free and open to the public.
